

Disable ksshaskpass on KDE neon

To disable the pop-up window when opening a SSH-connection on KDEneon first uninstall the ksshaskpass package:

sudo apt purge ksshaskpass

Then comment out all lines in `/etc/xdg/plasma-workspace/env/neon_ksshaskpass.sh`, so that the file looks like:

#!/bin/sh
SPDX-License-Identifier: GPL-3.0-only OR LicenseRef-KDE-Accepted-GPL
SPDX-FileCopyrightText: 2025 Carlos De Maine <carlosd.kde@gmail.com>
export SSH_ASKPASS to be ksshaskpass

#export SSH_ASKPASS='/usr/bin/ksshaskpass' #export SSH_ASKPASS_REQUIRE='prefer'

#ssh-add < /dev/null

Finally restart the bash console: `exec bash`
